

Frequency of lost-time accidents (LTAF) in the paper, sawmill and panel industries

A work-related accident is recorded as any incident resulting in at least one full working day or shift of absence in addition to the hours of absence on the day the accident occurred.

The company survey result covers 80% of paper industry and 82% of sawmill and panel industry employees in member companies.

